PERSONAL INFORMATION COLLECTION STATEMENT

The personal data and other relevant documents and information in connection with the prenuptial inquiry to be provided by the couple will be used by the Catholic Church to ascertain with moral certainty that nothing stands in the way of the valid and lawful celebration of their marriage in accordance with canon and civil law.

Provision of the personal data and relevant documents and information by the parties is obligatory. Failure to provide the data and relevant documents and information by either or both parties, or the submission of any false information, would deprive the parties of the right to marry in the Catholic Church.

The prenuptial inquiry papers and all other relevant data, documents and information will be kept at the diocesan office of the place of marriage.

As soon as the marriage has been celebrated, the celebrant will notify the parishes of baptism of either or both parties.

If necessary, the prenuptial inquiry papers and all other relevant data, documents and information collected and retained by the diocese of the wedding may be disclosed and transferred to Catholic Church authorities within and outside New Zealand in response to official Catholic Church inquiries about the marriage of the couple.

The parties, either jointly or separately, have the right of access to the prenuptial inquiry documents and to require correction(s) of any personal data and information kept by the diocese of the wedding, on condition that their request complies with civil and canon law. Such a request should be addressed in writing to the diocese of the wedding directly.

We hereby agree to the above statement as a prerequisite for conducting the formal prenuptial inquiry
